

Content Types

1. Blackboard Content Areas are the top levels in your course. They are linked to the course menu on the left. It can hold the following.

- a. Content Folders hold all sorts of content including pages, other folders, links, assignments, and quizzes. It does not require using a certain order for completion.

- b. You may also see Learning Modules. These have a table of contents and may require you to complete things in a certain order.

- c. Lesson plan can contain plans and objectives for the above.

- d. Content Item is just a information and will contain typed information and possibly several attached files.

